Salary Determination

- The ODNI uses a rank-in-person system in which rank is attached to the individual. A selected ODNI candidate or other Federal Government candidate will be assigned to the position at the employee's current GS grade and salary.
- A current Federal Government employee, selected for a detail, will be assigned to the position at his or her current grade and salary.

Component Mission

The National Counterproliferation Center (NCPC) coordinates strategic planning with the Intelligence Community (IC) to enhance intelligence support to the United States (U.S.) efforts to stem proliferation of weapons of mass destruction and related delivery systems. It works with the IC to identify critical intelligence gaps or shortfalls in collection, analysis, or exploitation; and develop solutions to ameliorate or close these gaps. It also works with the IC to identify long-term proliferation threats and requirements and develop strategies to ensure the IC is positioned to address these threats and issues. NCPC reaches out to elements both inside and outside the IC and the U.S. Government (USG) to identify new methods or technologies that can enhance the capabilities of the IC to detect and defeat future proliferation threats.

Major Duties and Responsibilities (MDRs)

- Serve as the Deputy National Intelligence Manager for Counterproliferation.
- Direct and oversee the development and implementation of a comprehensive, proactive counterproliferation strategy for the IC.
- Develop and implement strategies to improve counterproliferation analytic and collection program plans in the IC.
- Collaborate with key NCPC, IC, and US officials, academia or other research entities to identify critical customer needs, long-term priorities, and partnership opportunities.
- Establish, cultivate and lead programs and activities initiated by highly specialized senior analysts and program officers.
- Provide oversight, direction and supervision of projects and activities to ensure that sufficient fiscal planning and personnel management efforts are addressed.
- Identify, examine, monitor, and articulate significant issues regarding how counterproliferation policy or resource issues potentially affect ODNI relationships within the US government, the IC, with Congress, or in the public media.
- Establish controls and develop initiatives to ensure the Director, NCPC, and the DNI have a comprehensive awareness of counterproliferation issues, budget planning, and all relevant information is provided to the appropriate executive and legislative recipients.
- Oversee and manage in-depth analysis of proposal evaluations, evaluate and compare offers employing price or cost analysis techniques, prepare budget justification materials for the NCPC programs, and monitor appropriations legislation affecting programs of the NCPC.
- Serve as a principal advisor for the ODNI on critical analytic and collection strategies and evaluations related to counterproliferation of Nuclear, Biological, and Chemical Weapons, and Delivery Systems.

- Lead a team of professional staff, responsible for balancing program/project strategies, assess performance, collaborate and oversee goal setting and provide feedback on personal and professional development.

Mandatory and Educational Requirements

- Expert knowledge and familiarity of the IC or USG mission, objectives, and counterproliferation programs.
- Extensive managerial experience including experience with personnel, financial management policies, regulations, and practices.
- Strong strategic and tactical planning, critical thinking and analytical skills, required to propose innovative solutions and implement change with resourcefulness and creativity.

Desired Requirements

- Proven ability to coordinate, network, and communicate across the IC and USG agencies to develop, coordinate and influence change.
- Excellent oral and written communication skills, including ability to clearly convey complex information to audiences of all levels.
- Outstanding interpersonal skills and ability to work effectively, independently, and exert influence both internal and external the Agency.
